Intervise Task-based Technical Services

Anytime. Anywhere.

Technology is amazing, but it still needs people to architect, build, implement and support it. Increasingly, organizations are in need of people with specific technical expertise who can get the job done right. Intervise provides the best professionals with the right skills so you can get down to business.

We Get You

We understand that you need more than a person with technical ability. Our consultants are talented professionals you can rely on to support your business as diligently as you do.

Intervise has over 20 years of experience finding the right people for your job. In addition to locating exceptional IT professionals, we have extensive experience assembling teams with the ideal blend of expertise and experience needed to complete your project. Our unique approach to Technical Services guarantees that we offer the industry's finest technology talent. Anytime. Anywhere.

We Are Different

Our unique approach to Technical Services allows us to find and retain high quality IT professionals in areas including, but not limited to:

- ❖ Acquisition Support
- ❖ Program & Project Management
- ❖ Training

The Intervise On Demand process was created with one objective in mind—to deliver the best customer value by eliminating unnecessary costs.

To expedite delivery and selection of the best suited personnel for each project, Intervise maintains a “micro-bench” of core functional experts consisting of Program Managers, Technical Architects, and Business Analysts. These resources are responsible for managing and leading projects while providing critical delivery consistency, guidance and oversight.

We leverage our recruiting engine in order to secure incomparable talent to complete our engagement teams. Clients are engaged by a team of highly experienced consultants who have relevant industry experience, domain knowledge, technical expertise, and business acumen working under the leadership and management of our core “micro-bench.” With a select team of professionals eager to assist you, Intervise is committed to helping you achieve success.
